

Just Briefly

Maya Totman, Director of the Exotic and Wild Bird Rescue Center on Big Pine, aids a stricken Great White Heron recently during one of her organization's recurring coastal clean-ups at Fleming Key. The bird has gotten tangled with some trash oils and fishing line, and other manner of junk. Totman directs the clean-ups a few times a year with volunteers and various service organizations.